Dear Madam,

Sub: Information requested under Right to Information Act 2005 – Reg

I request the following information under Right to Information Act 2005 for which I have affixed a court fee stamp to the value of Rs 10.00. I also assure you that I am prepared to remit additional money, if needed.

I have attached the copies of 2 certificates that you sent with your letter dated 05.11.2014. One is regarding location of school and the other is regarding minority right of your school.

Certificate regarding the location of school

1. Please give information as to why an officer namely A. Sahaya Joseph has signed in the certificate in the capacity of Procurator and Secretary of Tuticorin Diocesan Association. Please give me information as to what connection that officer has with your school.

Certificate regarding minority right of your school

2. In this certificate it has been certified that the Tuticorin Diocesan Association is a Minority Educational Agency declared as such by the High Court of Judicature, Madras in W.P.No. 570 of 1975. Please send the copy of this court order in which the name of Educational Agency is recorded as mentioned above. Please highlight the lines which are in agreement with the registered name of the educational as mentioned in S.No.1 of 1937.

3. In the same certificate it is stated that the Director of School Education in his proceedings RC No.24541/G3/76 dated 20.11.76 approved the minority status of the Educational Agency. Please send the copy of authorized signed document of the above proceedings with the name of your Educational Agency.

Thank you.

With kind regards,
